The Information of Anthony Hildyard of Stradbroom in the County of Suffolk Yeoman 15 July 1698

He saith that in December last was 12 month on the morning of that day on which Ioseph Wing and the Deponent were tryed at the Old Bayly M^r. Iohn Gibbons who belongs to Whitehall and kept a Coffee house by Charing Cross came to the Deponent in Newgate and told him what service lay in his power and that he had been with the Grand Iury the day before where they dined and also that morning + acquainted them what the Evidence were and that he had known the Deponent some years and pulling out some papers he shewed the Deponent one of them the Import of which was to put the Grand Iurymen in mind of the Deponent and said that he designed to send those papers to the Grand Iurymen for that purpose
