

MINT01627

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/466, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

Unidentified being further Examined Saith that he never did deliver to the Said Unidentified a Wallett at his host house in NewCastle or at any other place with peices of Iron in it, or any other matter that was heavy, nor did he take any wallet from him at Shotton Town end, not did he ever bring any Iron peices in a wallet to the said Unidentifieds house, and order him to keep them safe, and not deliv<sup>er</sup> them to any but himselfe, nor was he at any time angry with the said Edw.<sup>d</sup> Gare, for discouraging the two persons that lodged at his house neither had this Examinant any correspondence with any person that goes by the name of Unidentified, and saith further, that he beleives he did not go with Unidentified and Unidentified to Unidentifieds's house, nor that he did tell Unidentified that they were honest men for ought he know, and denyes that ever Unidentified craved him for their Lodging or Dyet. Exam<sup>t</sup> capt. &c<sup>t</sup> coram Will Blackett. Rich<sup>d</sup> Warwick

---