

Robert Saker: The Deposition of Robert Saker of the parish of St Sepulchres 29 November 1698

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/73, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<28v>

[1]

The Deposition of Rob^t. Saker of the parish of St^t. Sepulchres Landed Gentry taken this 29 day of Nov^r. 1698

Who saith that on Sunday last by the Information of Eliz Bacon now in custody this Deponent with others searched a house in Golden Lance in the parish of St^t. Gyles Criplegate without London and then and these found in the back Garret of the said house a pair of stamps or Dyes for shillings and that by the Information of Eliz Bacon + Edward Bacon her husband is now a prisoner in Newgate he this Deponent with others did likewise search a house in Shandois street and did find the fore Garret of said house another pair of Dyes or stamps for making shillings

Rob^t. Saker

[2]

[1] 73

[2] Iurat die et anno preedict coram
Is Newton
