

'An Account of the Tin remaining unsold in the Tower, in Holland,
& at Hamburgh, Octob. 25. 1715',
with an appended note,
presumably to the Treasury, dated 26 October.

Author: Isaac Newton
Source: MINT 19/3/541, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<541r>

An Account of the Tin remaining unsold in the Tower, in Holland, & at Hamburgh, Octob.
25. 1715.

There remained in the Tower 1742^{Tuns}. 4^{cwt}. 0^d. 5^l 10^s 10^d which at 76 per Tunn (being the price it is now sold at) will make 13247. 7^s. 4^d

There was in Holland in the hands of M^r Beranger 1600^{Tuns}, which at 80 per Tun comes to 128000

Out of which summ must be deducted what was paid to M^r {Anstis} upon account being

(as appears by his Accounts) — — —	1950
And to M ^r Nico — — — —	2000	} 75500
And what he has advanced by way of anticipation —		} 54000
	And there remains—	52500.0.0

There was also at Hamburgh in the hands of Sir Iohn Lambert & Captain Gibbon 960 Tunns, which at 80 per To — — 76800

Out of which must be deducted what they have advanced by way of anticipation		} 14000
	And there remains —	62800.0.0
And the summ total of the three Accounts is —		247707.7.4

M^r Beranger & Sir Iohn Lambert are to have an Interest at teh rate of 5 per cent to be recooped from what they sell which must be deducted from this summ as also the charges of the Management. And what the Agents have in Cornwall must be deducted.

Is. Newton

[1]

The Agents in Cornwal had in their hands at Christmas last about 397 Tuns, to which if the Christmas, Lady day & Midsummer coynages be added, & from the summ be deducted 951^{Tuns} 16^{cwt} 3^d 20^{lb} sent from Cornwall to the Tower; the remainder will be the quantity now in Cornwall viz^t

[1] Mint Office Octob. 26. 1715.
