

Holograph fragment on the effect of increasing the value of French coins.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/135, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<135r>

The raising of the value of the France coyn since the year 1664, is equipollent to a Duty of $33\frac{1}{3}$ per cent laid upon all English commodities by the king of France & taken off from all French commodities by the parliament of England since that time.
