

Robert Lacy: The Examination of Robert Lacy of Newstreet in Fetter Lane Mercer 3 August 1698

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/50, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<22r>

[1]

The Examination of Rob^t. Lacy of Newstreet in Fetter Lane Mercer 3^d. Aug^t 1698

He saith that being this day in company with W^m. Butler in Cursiters ally between Chancery and Fetter Lanes at an ale house and going out of the house he was apprehended in the street and in his pockets he had 7 half Crowns and 2^s. and some farthings whereof he had 2^s. of the said Butler in part of 22^s. due to him from the said Butler upon a Note but he denyes that he gave any Counterfeit Guineas to the said Butler

Memorandum that after the said Rob^t. Lacy had upon his Examination told me what is above written he refused to set his hand to the same and would neither confess nor deny that he had more then two shillings of M^r. William Butler above mentioned nor would confess where his Lodgings were

[1] 50
