

MINT01549

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 15/17/268, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

Devon Ss The Information of Unidentified of the Parish of Axminster in the said County Inn
Holder taken upon Oath the 19.th day of September ANNO DNI 1698

The said Informant Saith that about the Latter End of Aprill last the Driver of M^r Unidentified's Waggon left at his house in Axminster aforeSaid a Small Box directed to be left in Axminster for one M^r Unidentified. This Informant further Saith that no person comeing for the said Box and being inquisitive to know what was therein because the box was of a greater weight than usuall of such a bigness, did on Thursday last (togeather with one James Daniell Jun.^r of Axminster aforeSaid) open the Box found therein, five Severall peices of Iron of Severall Formes, the Likeness whereof this said Informant never saw before but was immediately told by the said James Dan.^{ll} that four peices thereof were like some peices of the Engine he saw at the Castle in Exeter the last Assizes when M^r Unidentified was on his Tryall for Coyning Unidentified

Jurat coram nobis Unidentified Unidentified

The Information of James Dan.^{ll} Jun.^r of Axminster taken on Oath the day & year aforSaid
The said Informant Saith that he with the above said Unidentified did open the Box above mentioned and found their in as above said fice Several Peices of Iron of Severall formes and further saith that four peices thereof, were well like some peices of the Engine he Saw at the Castle of Exeter the last Assizes when M^r Unidentified was on his Tryall for Coyning. James Daniel ju^r

Jurat coram nobis Unidentified Unidentified
