

Report on Dunkirk coinage.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/16, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<16r>

An Account of the Severall Species of Mony Sent from Dunkirk To M^r Ash^b Frowd Controwler of the forain offices London with the number of Livers and Sols Each Contains and the Price of the whol in English mony

	L	s	d
{Oter} To a double Louis D'ore french new	40	0	0
Ditto single	20	0	0
Ditto Double old	31	0	0
Ditto Single old	15	10	0
a gold Ducat of Holland	8	10	0
Half a Louis dore New	10	00	0
New French Crown	5	00	0
Ditto one old	4	00	0
Ditto half new crown	2	10	0
ditto old	{2}	00	0
ditto a quarter New	1	05	0
a Ducatoon Spanish	5	00	0
a Ducatoon Flemish	4	00	0
Half Ducatoon	3	00	0
a Flemish {sciling}	0	10	0
a promiscus skilling	0	10	0
half a promiscus scilling	0	05	0
a Spanish Riall plate	0	10	0
a small French piece old	0	06:	6
Ditto a small piece	0	04:	0
a new coin of Sols	0	02:	5

one of a Sole $\{\frac{1}{2}\}$ and 3 {dew} and {Dixes} 0 01 10

L s d 153: 09: 0

153: 9: 10 Is in English mony att 17^L per pound {sterling} 9^L 1^s: 2^d
<16v>

Nov^r. {illeg}. 1712

Received the full contents on the otherside being nine pounds one shilling {at} two pence of Cot^r. Fauquier. I say received {per} {me}— 9^L. 1^s. 2^d

Ashburnham Frowde
