

'The state of a new contract for Tin'.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/3/530, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<530r>

The state of a new contract for Tin upon supposition that no more is imported then the consumption will annually carry off.

Paid annually for 1600 Tunns of Tin at $3\bar{\text{li}}\ 10^{\text{s}}$ per cwt standard weight	112000
Freight to London	2143
Insurance	1500
Salaries including 30^{li} to Truro	2890
All incidents in Cornwall & London	1000
Total expence	119533
Interest of $119533\bar{\text{li}}$ advanced during the sale of about 2150 Tunns of Tinn standard weight, that is for a years & four months at 5 per cent	} 7969
Total charge	127502
Discharge by the annual sale of 166 Tunns at $81\frac{3}{7}\bar{\text{li}}$ per standard weight.	130286
The ballance remaining to her Majesty	2784
At 6 per cent (which is the interest of the moneys lent to Cornwall) the ballance will be to her Majesty	1190

In this recconing nothing is allowed for unforeseen accidents.

The Tinn imported from Devonshire is about 40 or 45 Tunns per annum

The total exportation about 1550 or 1560 Tunns per annum standard weight

Left in her Majesties hands per annum about 80 or 90 Tunns standard weight.
