

Account of the moneys from fishing a wreck near the Isle of Mayo

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: T 1/235.66, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

---

<247r>

An Account of the silver Monies proceeding from 618<sup>lwt.</sup> 11<sup>oz.</sup> of silver Bullion and Spanish silver coyn melted down, being his Majesties Tenth part of the Treasure taken up from a Wreck in the sea near the Isle of Mayo, pursuant to his Majesties Pattent granted to Iacob Rowe Esq<sup>r</sup>. for fishing of Wrecks, viz.

Lwt.	oz.	dwt	lwt	oz.	Lwt	oz.	dwt	s.	d
618.	11.	00.	00.	614.	03.	00.	626.	07.	16.	21.	£1942.	07.	00.

before melting.	after melted.	Standard.	In Tale.
-----------------	---------------	-----------	----------

Out of which having deducted five per cent paid Iohn Sydenham Esq<sup>r</sup>. pursuant to his Majesties Warrant £ 97. 2. —.

and for the charges of ting inro Ingotss	}	2.	10.	—.	}	99.	12.	00.	—
---	---	----	-----	----	---	-----	-----	-----	---

Remains clear the sum of £ 1842. 15. 00. —

Paid to Casper frederick Henning Esq<sup>r</sup>.
for the use and service of her Majesties
Privy purse

5th December 1721

Is. Newton

In<sup>o</sup>Sydenham

---