<331r>

Wherefore we humbly propose to your Lordships that the House of Commons may be moved that the Act of Coynage may be renewed this Session of Parliament with an augmentation of the Duty from ten shillings per Tunn to fifteen shillings upon Wines &c & from 20^s to 30^s per Tun upon Brandy with such restrictions or applications of the money arising therefrom as the House shall think fit when it shall appear that the Income shall exceed the charge of the Mint

Which is most humbly submitted to your Lordships great Wisdom
