

Copy of letter recommending Gabriel le Clerc as third Graver of the Mint

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 1/7/49, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<49>

To the Right Honourable Sidney Lord Godolphin Lord High Treasurer of England

May it Please Your Lordship

In a Report which We lately made to Your Lordship about filling the Gravers place, We proposed M^r. Croker to be first Graver of the Mint, and M^r. Bull the second and by reason that M^r Gabriel Le Clerc one of the Petitioners who is a Skilful and nimble Artist was then in the Service of the Duke of Zell Wee humbly desired time to Consider of a third person, but he having since obtained his Discharge from the Duke of Zell, and being now at Liberty wee therefore most humbly Reccommend Him for his Ability as a fitt person to be incerted in the patent for the place of Third Graver with a Sallary of Eighty pounds per Annum to commence from Christmas last

All which is most humbly submitted to Your Lordships great Wisdom

I Stanley

Is Newton

In Ellis

[1]

[1] Mint Office
10 Ian: 170 $\frac{4}{5}$.
