Table of the current and intrinsic values of Dutch coins.

Author: Isaac Newton

Source: MINT 19/2/156, National Archives, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, UK

<156r>

A State of the Gold and Silver Species of Holland compared with the Standard of Gold and Silver of England in which is to be Noted the policy of the States of Holland is to keep up a Certain Standard goodness in the Species of money called Bank money Whereby they make their Exchange with all parts of the World tho' their Current money passing By Permission of the States, is not sometimes owrth $\frac{2}{3}$d of the Intrinsick, The Bank Coyns, are 3 Viz^t Gold Ducats, Silver Duccatoons, & Silver Bank Dollars.

		Florins	Styvers		Styvers		dw	gr		Car^ts	gr	oz	dw			oz
The {	Ducatt passes for	5	—	or	100	Weight	2:	6	and is	23:	2	or	11:	15	fine	to	12	Standard
	Duccatoon	3	—	60	{	}	20:	21:					11:	7		to	12
	Doller	2	10	50			18:	12:					10:	14		to	12

					dw	gr		Car	gr		oz	dw	gr
200 Ducats of Gold at 5 florins Bank			is 1000^florins Weigh		22^oz:	10^dw	of	23^Car̄:	2^gr	is Standard	24^oz:	18^dw:	20^gr
333 Duccatoons	40 Stivers	23 florins of Silver	is 1000		348:	5.5		227^dwt {illeg}^d			356:	2:	—
400 Dollers of Silver		2 florins 10 Stivers	is 1000		370			214			356:	13	—

Of the Dollers there are few Coyned.

oz	dw	gr
24:	18:	10	Ducats Standard	At £ 4	per ounce	is	£ 99: 15: 4
356:	2:	—	Duccatoons Silver	£ 0: 5: 2	per ounce	£ 91: 17: 6	}	So that the same Gold that passes in Holland for 1000 florins will yield here more then the silver $7\frac{3}{4}$ per Cent.
356:	13	—	Dollers Silver	£ 0: 5: 2 per ounce	£ 92 — 5			